

The Ashley Bend, named after its inventor Clifford Ashley, is used to tie two lines or ropes of similar size. It is easy to tie, secure and never jams. In addition, the ends are not prone to snagging as is the case with a reef knot or sheet bend.

